

Replacement Religion

Various media sources have been reporting on the population decline in many nations around the world, but rather than taking steps to encourage their own citizenry to have more children, these same countries are embracing replacement migration to avoid the decline of their working-age population. However, importing millions of people from other cultures and religions can be self-defeating because it creates another set of problems that may prove insurmountable. One of these is the replacement of the religious values of the indigenous population. This is discussed at length by people like Ayaan Hirsi Ali. In her latest work entitled: "Prey: Immigration, Islam, and the Erosion of Women's Rights" she said the following:

"Immigration from majority-Muslim countries imperils the hard-won rights of European women because Muslim men are accustomed to gender-segregated societies that mandate female modesty and the prohibition of women from public life. This is now extending to the indigenous female population who are being criminally assaulted, told to cover their bodies, and driven from the streets of their own cities. Hirsi Ali is now calling for a new feminist movement in order to stand up for the rights of all women and coalesce around the issue of women's safety from predatory men."

Because mankind's Creator is much wiser than any human being, He established a code of conduct that would maintain peace and stability within nations. Central to this is the importance of practicing only one set of laws/values because an amalgamation of differing and contradictory laws/values leads to chaos, confusion, and division within a nation:

You shall have the same law for the stranger and for one from your own country, for I am the Lord your God (Leviticus 24:22; cf. Numbers 15:16, 29; NKJV used throughout unless otherwise noted).

So, the old adage, "When in Rome do as the Romans do" is sound advice and should be one of the conditions for immigrants before they enter another country on a permanent basis. In western nations with a Judeo-Christian history, this would mean showing respect toward women based on many scriptural examples. In the case of women's treatment by men, the following would apply:

Husbands, love your wives just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her, that he might set her apart and cleanse her with the washing of water by the word (of God Almighty; aka; Allah), that he might present her to himself (in a future resurrection) a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish (cleansed of sinful conduct). So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies (Ephesians 5:25-28; Ed. notes in parentheses).

Likewise you husbands, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered (1Peter 3:7).

Modesty and decorum are characteristics associated with Christian women. Therefore, religious leaders in western countries should be encouraging this behavior. But that does not mean wrapping women up in a Jibab and Niqab, because doing so is humiliating to women.

Likewise you wives, be subject to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, they, without a word, may be won by the conduct of their wives, when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by respect. Do not let your beauty only be that of an outward adorning, arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel; but let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable ornament of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God (1Peter 3:1-4; cf. 1Timothy 2:9-15).

Because too many western leaders practice the woke religion, as opposed to the principles contained within God's word, crimes by immigrants often go unpunished or the sentences do not fit the gravity of the offense, because doing so would apparently be xenophobic. So, these same woke leaders are creating a religious vacuum that allows foreign belief systems to increase within their respective countries to the point that some Muslims are now demanding Sharia law be implemented within their host nation. This is a recipe for disaster because the religion, history, and culture of western countries will be completely dismantled and removed.

In reality, woke western leaders are doing exactly what their counterparts in the ancient nation of Israel were told not to do. They pretend to be righteous and express their genuine concern, including the invocation of blessings upon their country and its citizenry, but their real objective is to gain and maintain more power, and the financial benefits that go along with it.

*So they (woke leaders) come to you (God's true servant/s) as people do, they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words, but they do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their hearts pursue their own gain. Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them (Ezekiel 33:31-32; Ed. notes in parentheses; emphasis added).

In the 34th chapter of Ezekiel, God strongly rebukes these same leaders, and exposes their many forms of abuse against the citizenry, which is also described in the following link: https://www.onetruthonelaw.com/uploads/4/2/3/5/42356753/nicolaitans_are_leading_us.pdf

In God's word, anyone who wants to serve a nation must first be very familiar with His law and commandments because they are expected to uphold them, but this is not happening in western countries, even though these same nations have paid lip service to a Higher Authority throughout their history. This helps explain why western civilization is going in the wrong direction, and being mismanaged by self-serving and unprincipled leaders.

When he (the leader) takes power, he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from the book that is before the priests. And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear (have deep respect for) the Lord his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes, that his heart may not be lifted above his citizens, that he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may prolong his days in his office (Deuteronomy 17:18-20; Ed. notes in parentheses).

In conclusion, it is the self-righteous, virtue-signaling of lawless leaders in western countries that has subverted traditional Judeo-Christian values, and created a spiritual vacuum that allows other religions to rise and soon subjugate the cultures that have existed, in some cases, for thousands of years. Unless the citizenry of these same nations wake up soon, they will lose their respective countries forever per: https://www.onetruthonelaw.com/uploads/4/2/3/5/42356753/antinomian_parallel_in_history.pdf
