

Voices To Be Silenced

It is erroneous to believe that efforts to silence those who expose the malign activities of globalists, politicians, bankers, religious leaders, non-government agencies, or corporations is unique to this generation, because it is not. In fact, going all the way back to Adam and Eve, anyone who criticized "the orthodoxy of the day" was "walking on thin ice." Hence, the premeditated murder of Abel (cf. Genesis 4:3-8).

Not only does the Bible begin with silencing someone who disagreed with "the prevailing orthodoxy," it ends with the silencing of two individuals who will expose the corrupt schemes of mankind's archenemy when he is released from prison for a short period of time. This will occur at the very end of God's plan to reconcile all sinners to Himself.

Now when they finish their testimony (warning), the beast (religio-political system) that ascends out of the bottomless pit (prison; cf. Revelation 20:1-3) will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them (Revelation 11:7; NKJV used throughout unless otherwise noted; Ed. notes in parentheses; emphasis added).

So, at the beginning and end of man's history there has been a strong opposition to the prevailing orthodoxy, and often it has been ruthless. This trend to silence opposing views has also affected the generations in between.

Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. Still others had trials of mocking and scourging, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, while others were slain by sword. Some wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented; of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth (Hebrews 11:35-38).

Christ identified the usual suspects when it came to those behind "the silencing" and, as we will see, it is the lawless ruling class that do not want their malign schemes exposed.

Woe to you (religio-political leaders)! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. Therefore the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute, that the blood of all the prophets that was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple (Luke 11:47-51; Ed. note in parenthesis).

The retention of power, and the enrichment that goes with it, is a motivating force behind silencing those who expose the wrongdoings of the ruling class. In America today, there is news coverage regarding one political party using the judicial branch against their opponents. Terms like "lawfare" and "two-tiered system of justice" are often used to describe these actions. But again, these tactics are not new. Following Christ's murder and resurrection, a deacon in the early church named Stephen spoke out and exposed these "power brokers" and it did not end well for him.

When they heard these things they were furious, and they gnashed at him with their teeth (Acts 7:54).

The they cried out with a loud voice, plugged their ears, and ran at him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city and stoned him (Acts 7:57-58).

In order to maintain their power and control, the globalists, bankers, politicians, corporations, etc. must silence those who oppose their agenda. In order to do this, they must manipulate the media, while also working to remove free speech rights. As Greg Lukianoff, president of the Foundation of Individual Rights in Education (FIRE) wrote in his book "Unlearning Liberty."

"A shameful level of civics knowledge, in combination with the miserable state of student rights in K-12, leaves students uninformed about the importance of free speech and distressingly comfortable with censorship."

With anti-speech movements on college campuses, it does not bode well for western civilization that championed the ability to speak one's mind, even if it collided with the prevailing orthodoxy of the time. Now student groups, often with the support of faculty, ban speakers if they disagree with the opinions of these speakers. Politicians are also jumping on this bandwagon by demanding that the government should take action against those who disagree with the orthodoxy that climate change is a grave threat to humanity. So we are in uncharted waters, and it does not bode well if people feel they are in danger for speaking their minds.

Freedom of speech also includes expressing one's view, or interpretation of scripture. But once this begins exposing the lawless behavior of our ruling class, there will be swift and punitive action to shut it down. Christ's death is directly linked to his ability to correctly explain scriptures that were inconvenient to the political relationship between the religious leaders of his time and the Roman authorities, which explains why these "masters of manipulation" said the following to Pilate when he was willing to spare Christ's life.

*And Pilate said to the (Jewish rulers), "Behold your King!" But they cried out, "Away with him, away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered,

"We have no king but Caesar!" (John 19:14-15; Ed. note on parentheses; emphasis added).

The goal of globalists is to engineer a single system of government over the citizenry in western countries, but it can only succeed if free speech is removed. Therefore, it should come as no surprise that every possible effort and action will be taken to remove free and open dialogue in order to establish this new system that will be totalitarian. More importantly, until we recognize the real power behind the globalists' movement, we will not understand the urgency of resisting "The Operations Manager" who is the one orchestrating this attack on our freedom to speak openly, and without fear. Ultimately, it is his anti-human agenda that is being foisted upon us, and our leaders are just his useful idiots because they are preoccupied with their own self-importance, and self-serving agenda: https://www.onetruthonelaw.com/uploads/4/2/3/5/42356753/the_operations_manager_1.pdf

The good news is that the Operations Manager will be removed, and freedom of speech fully restored, along with peace and prosperity for all nations as they begin following the law and commandments of Almighty God (cf. Isaiah 2:2-4).

*For unto us a Child (Christ/Messiah) is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon his shoulder... and of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end...(Isaiah 9:6-7; Ed. note in parenthesis; emphasis added).
